Albrow Maltsters
2nd Division

Surely nothing can stop HAMMERWICH from being the top club in the Albrow Maltsters Second Division and thus sealing their place in league history by becoming the first team to be promoted.

In the meantime Elford have leapfrogged above Brackensfield as they continue their battle for the second spot and, with it, promotion.

BRACKENSFIELD entertained Hammerwich, were put in to bat and bowled out for just 100. The wickets were shared by three Hammerwich bowlers with Phil Russell taking 4 for 25.

The game looked to be in the balance when Brackensfield captured the first four wickets for 40, but Russell took control and scored almost all the runs in a partnership of 60 with Hurcombe which took Hammerwich to their 11th league victory.

ELFORD recorded a crushing win over SWADLINCOTE, first they scored a formidable 195 with seven players recording double figures. Tailender Martin Stilgoe made the largest contribution with an unbeaten 38, while Steven Hughes returned the best figures with 4 wickets for 40 runs.

After tea Swadlincote quickly found themselves under pressure and were bowled out in only 15 overs for 22. Rob Drabble took 4 for 17 and Ben Woodall had a remarkable return of six wickets for five runs.

HILTON had a welcome fourth win when they visited NETHERSEAL ST PETERS. Batting first they were indebted to Pete Laban who made a steady 53 and Paul Daffern who scored a Lullington Park increased their lead in the Central Derbyshire League's Premier Division with a solid performance against a Little Eaton side that just managed to hold on for the draw.

Park, asked to bat first, looked to be consolidating with Pete Gough and John Davison settling against the visiting attack, but a double setback saw them both out with only 40 on the board.

But, Andy Tiso took charge, with a forceful innings that soon put his team back in command. Punishing the bad balls to the boundary, and also grafting for singles, Tiso top scored with 64.

The mid-order frailties of the previous week had been repaired. An aggressive knock from Jon Hughes signalled his return to form, as he rattled five boundaries in a brisk 33.

Neil Giles was another batsman in a hurry, including a couple of big sixes in his timely contribution of 36, while skipper John Goodwin struck six fours in his innings of 33.

Carr was the most productive of the Little Eaton bowlers, recording 4-64, but unable to stem the run flow as Park reached 229 for six.

Little Eaton's response was steady, but once the initial breakthrough had been made, several wickets fell cheaply.

Seamers John Hart and Steve Wakelin each collected a couple of wickets and then the spin of Pete Gough caused problems.

But Carr, Chambers and Steve Dolby held out for draw at 123-9.

maiden league century with eleven sixes and six fours in his 107. Peter Sturges bowled well to take four wickets.

A target of 228 seemed too much for Netherseal who got off to a slow start, losing two early wickets. A fightback by Martin Sturges, Colin Whetton and Colin Sturges pulled Netherseal closer but they were never in sight of such a large total. Adam Sellars bowled with spirit to take four wickets.

Trentside were restricted by a hostile spell of bowling by N Miller to 147 for eight wickets. Martin Stakes and C Williams opened with a stand of 42, with Williams going on to complete his fifty. David Walker and N Miller shared the wickets. Draycott and Hanbury got off to a flying start with Paul Walker and Vaughan Taylor scoring 95 from sixteen overs.

A mini-collapse followed with five wickets falling while 16 runs were scored. Even so Draycott won by four wickets with sixteen overs to spare. The sixth bowler used by Trentside, Colin Wood took three wickets for only eight runs.
