Burton Tiles Premier Division

CHAMPS HIT
UTTO FOR SIX

IT was a case of normal service resuming as Burton Tiles Premier Division triple champions ALREWAS made a winning start to the campaign.

Stalwart all-rounder Peter Gough proved as reliable as ever, making vital contributions with bat and ball, as the Daisy Lane club cruised to a six-wicket win over top flight newcomers UTTOXETER.

Gough and spin partner Steve Broderick (4-15) shared six wickets after Alan Gough and Duane Whiteside had knocked over the openers cheaply.

Andy Gaggie, one of four victims for wicket keeper Matt Duggins, mounted a brave back to the wall operation with a fighting half century but the visitors' total of 134 was never going to be enough to stretch the powerful Alrewas batting line up.

Uttoxeter had the consolation of picking up the wicket of the league's top batsman Dave Thompson for only eight and his opening partner David Oates for 27.

But Gough, unbeaten on 46, received useful support from Brendan Forster and Maurice Bennett as Alrewas reached their target in the 42nd over.

ROLLESTON, hoping to improve on last season's runner's up spot, could not have made a more inauspicious start as TUTBURY sent them crashing at The Willows.

A slow, wet pitch inevitably produced a low scoring game with Rolleston's crawl to only 44 in 20 overs emphasising domination of ball over bat.

It did not get any better either. Once Paul Allen had been removed for 33 Rolleston plunged from 51-1 to 114 all out as Dean Bennett (5-35) and youngster Paul Reynolds exploited the helpful conditions.

Tutbury made a brisker start but were made to fight all the way by Nick Wadham and Kevin Dent, the winning runs not coming until the 41st over with only two wickets to spare.

DRAYCOTT & HANBURY, another of last season's elite clubs, also came a cropper at home to BARTON.

Skipper Ian Mitchell was the star of the show for the visitors with an outstanding innings of 78 as all other batsmen perished cheaply.

Gordon Ford's four-wicket haul restricted Barton to 132, but there was an even better bowling performance by paceman John Thompson who returned figures of 5-14 in 13.5 overs as Hanbury slumped to 70 all out.

Run-making proved a hard task even at the Belvedere Park home of usually prolific IND COOPE — especially for visiting HAMMERWICH.

The home team reached 154-6 thanks to a 71-run partnership between skipper Ray McGuinness and Steve Newton whose quickfire half-century contained two sixes and seven fours.

Daryl Ford removed Hammerwich's dangerous overseas star Nasrat Hussain and it was all over in 21 overs as Jon Fryatt feasted with figures of 5-30.

HILTON'S Premier Division debut ended in a 21-run defeat against BURTON at The Meadows.

The home team struggled to 120 against the bowling of Neil Barber and Stuart Harrison but Hilton's dream of victory was wrecked by Mick Haynes, Ben Bartram and Mark Hadley.
